Level is an artist run initiative with dedicated residency and exhibition programs providing opportunities and building connections between early career and more established female visual artists. Informing our approach are models of collaboration and collectivity and a commitment to critical engagement with the diversity of female contemporary arts practices. By strengthening relationships between artists, writers and curators, LEVEL seeks to provide a new platform for discussion; LEVELing the playing field. www.levelari.org

This project is supported by the Visual Arts and Crafts Strategy, an initiative of the Australian, State and Territory governments.

Screen Space is a not-for profit art gallery that opened in Melbourne's CBD in September 2010. Screen Space is rent-free for artists and curators and incorporates a purpose-built gallery. The main exhibition space has been designed specifically to enable the gallery's curatorial focus on exhibitions that incorporate screen technology or which engage with screen culture, regardless of medium. The Screen Space 2012 program includes exhibitions by local, interstate and international artists.
